

Name: _____

Date: _____

Urban Nature Poem Art

Pick a natural object (rock, shell, cloud, tree, seedpod, bush, mound of dirt, mountain, sun, etc)

Draw or paint stripes inspired by the colors and textures of your object.
The stripes can be different shapes to feel like the shapes of your object.

A large, empty rectangular box with a dark red border, occupying the central and lower portion of the page. It is intended for the student to draw stripes and write a poem.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Urban Nature Poem Art

Poem

Write a line about the up/on top of/over/outside of your object:

Write a line about the down/below/under/inside of your object:

Write a feelings line: What does your object feel like? How does it make you feel? What are you reminded of? What does it make you imagine?

Rewrite your poem here. You can use different colors if you want.
Cut out and stick on your art. You're done!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Free Write

Use the Feelings Line from your poem to inspire a creative story.
You can even use your Feelings line as the first line of your story.
Set a timer for two minutes and go! Don't think too much about it, just write!

A large rectangular area with a dark red header and a white body, containing ten horizontal black lines for writing.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Free Write

A large rectangular writing area with a brown border. It contains ten horizontal black lines, creating nine distinct rows for writing.